Our REACH commitment

I am sure many of you viewing our website will be interested to know the intentions of Jet-Lube (UK) Ltd. in relation to the EU REACH legislation and our position with regards to the possible effect upon the continued supply of substances.

Jet-Lube is closely following REACH developments and is confident that all of our substances will be pre-registered (or exempted) prior to the December 1st 2008 deadline.

We have already begun the process of assessment and at the moment we have no reason to believe that the supply of any material distributed by Jet-Lube (UK) Ltd or associated locations, will be adversely affected.

I do hope this information satisfies any of your concerns at the moment and as this will be a busy year concerning this topic, further information will be forth coming as it becomes available.

If you need any further information please feel free to contact us by email at ukinfo@jetlube.com or write to us directly.

UPDATE

Jet-Lube is now registered with ECHA and has commenced pre-registration.
